MARRIED AT NOON TODAY.

MRS. NORMAN UNDERWOOD. Formerly Miss Anne Frances Bayard.

The marriage of Miss Anne Frances Bayard, daughter of Mr. James A. Bayard, and Mr. Norman Underwood, took place at noon today at St. Margaret's Church, Rev. Herbert Scott Smith officiating. The church was adorned with palms and foliage plants, and the altar vases were filled with daisies and other white blossoms. Her attendants were Miss Kathleen Johnson, maid of honor, who wore a pretty dress of white crepe over chiffon, a Charlotte Coray hat of lace trimmed with blue and white, and carried a bouquet of nearly blue sweet peas, and the following bridesmaids: Miss Margaret Knight, Miss Helen Deane, Miss Ethel Norris and Miss Eleanor Wright, who wore dresses of white marquisette, Charlotte Coray hats of lace trimmed with blue and white, and carried bouquets of sweet peas and daisies. Each of the bride's attendants carried her souvenir gift—a handkerchief.

Mrs. Bayard, the bride's mother, wore gray chiffon, and Mrs. Underwood wore white chiffon and lace, and both wore large and becoming hats.

Mr. William Underwood was best man for his brother, Mr. Underwood, who received and wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother for the relatives. They will reside in this city on their return.
